

Privacy Notice for Governance

Under data protection law, individuals have a right to be informed about how North View Academy uses any personal data that we hold about them. We comply with this right by providing 'privacy notices' (sometimes called 'fair processing notices') to individuals where we are processing their personal data.

This privacy notice explains how we collect, store and use personal data about individuals who we engage, to work within our Trust.

We, North View Academy, St. Luke's Road, Sunderland, SR4 0HB, are the 'data controller' for the purposes of data protection law. Our Data Protection Officer is Derek Colborn (see 'Contact us' below).

The personal data we hold

We process data relating to those we engage, to work at within our Trust school. Personal data that we may collect, use, store and share (when appropriate) about you includes, but is not restricted to:

- Contact details
- Date of birth, marital status and gender
- Date of Appointment
- Date of Resignation
- Appointment/election declarations
- Declarations of business interests
- Governing Board attendance register
- DBS confirmation

We use this data

The purpose of processing this data is to help us support WISE North View Academy governance arrangements and to ensure compliance with Companies House, Getting Information for Schools, Trust/school website.

Our lawful basis for using this data

We only collect and use personal information about you when the law allows us to. Most commonly, we use it where we need to:

- Comply with a legal obligation
- Carry out a task in the public interest

Less commonly, we may also use personal information about you where:

- You have given us consent to use it in a certain way
- We need to protect your vital interests (or someone else's interests)

Where you have provided us with consent to use your data, you may withdraw this consent at any time. We will make this clear when requesting your consent, and explain how you go about withdrawing consent if you wish to do so.

Some of the reasons listed above for collecting and using personal information about you overlap, and there may be several grounds which justify North View Academy's use of your data.

Collecting this information

While the majority of information we collect from you is mandatory, there is some information that you can choose whether or not to provide to us.

Whenever we seek to collect information from you, we make it clear whether you must provide this information (and if so, what the possible consequences are of not complying), or whether you have a choice.

How we store this data

We create and maintain the constitution for North View Academy Trust Board. The information contained in this file is kept secure and is only used for purposes directly relevant to your Governorship.

Once your Governorship with us has ended, we will retain this file and delete the information in it in accordance with our Record Management Policy.

Data sharing

We do not share information about you with any third party without your consent unless the law and our policies allow us to do so.

Where it is legally required, or necessary (and it complies with data protection law) we may share personal information about you with:

- Company House
- Getting Information for Schools
- The Department for Education
- Our regulator Ofsted, Independent Schools Inspectorate

Your rights

How to access personal information we hold about you

Individuals have a right to make a 'subject access request' to gain access to personal information that North View Academy holds about them.

If you make a subject access request, and if we do hold information about you, we will:

- Give you a description of it
- Tell you why we are holding and processing it, and how long we will keep it for
- Explain where we got it from, if not from you

- Tell you who it has been, or will be, shared with
 - Let you know whether any automated decision-making is being applied to the data, and any consequences of this
 - Give you a copy of the information in an intelligible form
- If you would like to make a request, please contact our Data Protection Officer.

Your other rights regarding your data

Under data protection law, individuals have certain rights regarding how their personal data is used and kept safe. You have the right to:

- Object to the use of your personal data if it would cause, or is causing, damage or distress
- Prevent your data being used to send direct marketing
- Object to the use of your personal data for decisions being taken by automated means (by a computer or machine, rather than by a person)
- In certain circumstances, have inaccurate personal data corrected, deleted or destroyed, or restrict processing
- Claim compensation for damages caused by a breach of the data protection regulations

To exercise any of these rights, please contact our data protection officer.

Complaints

We take any complaints about our collection and use of personal information very seriously. If you think that our collection or use of personal information is unfair, misleading or inappropriate, or have any other concern about our data processing, please raise this with us in the first instance. To make a complaint, please contact our data protection officer. Alternatively, you can make a complaint to the Information Commissioner's Office:

- Report a concern online at <https://ico.org.uk/concerns/>
- Call 0303 123 1113
- Or write to: Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire, SK9 5AF

Contact us

If you have any questions, concerns or would like more information about anything mentioned in this privacy notice, please contact our Data Protection Officer:
